Impact to date:

- One-on-One resource support.
- Alternative learning options through our and partner programs (Essential Skills Achievement Pathway, Compass, GOALS, online and one-on-one supported learning).
- Credit recovery (liaising with subject teachers to coordinate make-up options).
- Strengthening connections with & within the school: Offering time to students, teachers, and families to share their concerns and brainstorm an outcome empowering to all-- listening and connecting to create solutions.
- Developing community connections: tutoring, YMCA, reading programs, recreational programs, Family Plus (mental health support), Brillant Labs, liaising with First Nation organizations, and making opportunities for outdoor adventure.
- Program recruitment with our feeder schools (Beaconsfield & Seaside Park).
